RE: Allegations of Voter Intimidation

Dear Ms. Boxley:

As you are aware, during the general election of 2010, allegations of voter intimidation were made against you for your role in the handling of absentee ballots.

As the 2012 election season gets underway, and the primary election of May 22, 2012 draws near, I would advise you to stay clear of any potential election controversy. If my office receives any complaints of improper absentee ballot handling or any type of election fraud by you, or anyone else, I will request the Arkansas State Police to investigate those allegations. If the investigation reveals that criminal violations have occurred, my office will file criminal charges against the responsible person(s).

Please consider this letter as your ONLY warning. Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Scott Ellington".

Scott Ellington
District Prosecuting Attorney
